Nothing to disclose.
gave a presentation on alternative payment models to the Renal Physicians Association annual meeting in March, 2016 and I was compensated for my time and travel. During that presentation, I described potential approaches to APMs for patients with chronic kidney disease. While there, I met with a group of RPA leaders to answer questions about APMs and I provided comments on a very preliminary concept paper they had developed about bundled payments for chronic kidney disease. have had no further involvement with RPA or its members in the past evelve months, and I have not had any involvement in the preparation of the PFPM described in the LOI. The proposed PFPM would have no special or distinct effect on me.
